

SOCCER IN THE WILDERNESS

Children in the Wilderness Botswana and Wilderness Safaris are proud to announce the Soccer in the Wilderness Tournament!

In 2010, over a period of three months, a soccer tournament will take place between all our Wilderness Safaris concessions in Botswana – a battle of the Titans between six soccer teams made up of staff from each concession.

Play-offs will take place in March with the final happening at Vumbura Plains on the 1st of May 2010 – it promises to be mighty clash, filled with excitement and thrills!

The aim of the great Soccer in the Wilderness tournament is to raise much-needed funds for our pride and joy, Children in the Wilderness Botswana. In addition to the prestige and the Cup that the winners will receive, the concession that raises the most money for Children in the Wilderness will stand to win great prizes.

Below are the competing teams:

Moremi Lions • Linyanti Elephants • Ngamiland Adventure Safaris Lechwes
Maun Donkeys • Sefofane Skimmers • Kwedi Sables

Soccer in the Wilderness has been conceived and is run by Wilderness Safaris Botswana staff members themselves, combining their love of Children in the Wilderness programmes with the Wilderness aim of promoting healthy lifestyles amongst its people. It is therefore fitting that we use the favourite sport of 2010 to build healthy outlooks, bodies, team spirit and inspiration – and raise funds for a programme that helps the children of Botswana and teaches them about their own health and lifestyle choices.

How can you help:

There are several options available to you should you wish to make a donation:

1. Sponsor a team (open amount)
2. Sponsor t-shirts for a team (US$200)
3. Sponsor soccer balls (US$50)
4. Become a fundraising ambassador by registering on Back A Buddy (www.backabuddy.co.za) and raising funds for this great cause
