

Where are they now?

Franco Morao

Born at Gobabis and placed in Windhoek's SOS Children's Village when he was just two years old, Morao has been connected to Wilderness Safaris since he was teenager. Franco joined Children in the Wilderness while at school, and attended a CITW annual camp every year since 2002. He is still actively involved in CITW Programmes, and often helps in the role of camp director.

Franco Morao is now an Explorations guide for Wilderness Safaris Namibia and is a true ambassador for Children in the Wilderness.

