

Where are they now?

Julius Gabriel

Julius Gabriel is a former CITW, camper who took part in a CITW programme at Hoanib Camp in 2005, is now a student at the Polytechnic of Namibia studying Information Technology. Julius acquired his National Diploma in Information Technology in October 2012 and is currently doing his internship at Wilderness Safaris Windhoek office in the IT department for four to six months. This internship is compulsory for his studies and will qualify him to graduate in a Bachelor's Degree of System Administration and Networks.

